“Konveio helped us to deliver interactivity and a variety of ways for participants to get involved. And for us, it was as close as we could get to an actual face-to-face consultation.”

“I used the site and it performed perfectly for the purpose I intended - public comments on a document we had created. Everyone loved the ease of use and we received over 150 comments - exactly as I had hoped it would. You have a great product, thank you!”

with Konveio because even though we ask people to review material before discussion, they don't.

Konveio required them to read through and then provide actually constructive comments rather than just knee-jerking at a meeting."

Associate Planner,

“Konveio was a great way to track and receive comments from the public. This form of public comment submission should be the new status quo, providing clarity and transparency to all of the parties involved.

I would say somewhere between 40-60 hours were saved by using Konveio.”
